EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An Examiner's Amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. Authorization for this Examiner's Amendment was given in a telephone interview with Kenneth Lukacher on September 17, 2007.
3. The application has been amended as follows:
  - a. In claim 7, line 4, after 'weatherstripping', please insert –to form hinged segments—.
  - b. In claim 10, line 2, delete “severing strip” and replace with –severing step—.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 1-11 are allowed.
5. Pile weatherstripping comprising a pile extending from a backing strip is well known in the art. However, the prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest a pile weatherstrip device comprising a continuous length of pile weatherstripping having hinges in staggered relationship along opposite edges to form hinged segments of weatherstripping, wherein said segments are folded at said hinges into an edge-to-edge adjoining relationship providing a block of pile weatherstripping. In other words, the prior art fails to teach or suggest a pile weatherstrip that is hinged so as to enable accordion-like folding of said weatherstrip to produce a block-like shape of pile. See Figures 5 and 6. Therefore claims 1-6 are allowed.

6. Additionally, the prior art fails to teach or suggest a method of making such a pile weatherstrip device as recited in claims 7-11. Specifically, it is not known or suggested in the prior art to sever a continuous length of pile weatherstripping to define hinged segments in staggered and spaced relationship longitudinally and to fold said hinged segments into edge-to-edge relationship to define a block configuration of pile weatherstripping. Therefore, with the above Examiner's Amendment, claims 7-11 are allowed.

Conclusion

7. The art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Cheryl Juska whose telephone number is 571-272-1477.
